395. SHRI. B. K. HARIPRASAD: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state whether Government propose to consider the long pending need to open an office of the Commissioner of Income Tax at Hubli, to improve tax collection and settlement to provide relief to all concerned?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI RAMESHWAR THAKUR): No proposal for opening an office of the Commissioner of Income-tax at Hubli is under consideration of the Government.

Government guidelines for financial institutions on takeover bidis

396. SHRI SATYA PRAKASH MALAVIYA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what are the guidelines of Government to be followed by the financial institutions in the matter of takeovers and mergers in the corporate sector;

(b) whether the financial institutions acted in accordance with the Government's guidelines in the matter of takeover of L & T by the RIL group; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI DALBIR SINGH): (a) to (c) In the matter of takeover and mergers in the corporate sector, while there are guidelines relating to acquisition of shares less than 10 percent of the voting rights in a company as well as 10 % or more of the total voting rights in a company, details of which are also contained in the Listing Agreement Form, the recent developments relating to L & T are not "a matter of takeover". These developments arose out of two Resolutions moved by Trishna Investment & Leasing Company Ltd.' Bombay, a subsidiary company of Reliance Industries Ltd., proposing the appointment of Shri Dhirubhai Ambani as Chairman, L & T and Shri Mukesh Ambani as Managing Director, L&T. These two Resolutions were subsequently withdrawn and, therefore, the question of financial institutions taking any action in the matter did not arise.

Excise duty on textile fibre and yarn

397. SHRI SATYA PRAKASH MALAVIYA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is considerable disparity in the excise duties levied on various textile fibres, filament yarns including blended yarns;

(b) if so, the reasons for permitting such disparity which results in making of huge profits in some sectors at the cost of other sectors of the textile industry;

(c) whether Government propose to levy uniform ad-volorem duties on all textile fibres and yarns excepting on 100 per cent cotton so that the higher priced products have to bear a higher burden of duties; and

(d) if not, what corrective measures in this regard are being contemplated by Government?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI RAMESHWAR THAKUR): (a) to (d) Excise duties on various textile fibres and yarns are levied at
